

CPYRGHT.

CPYRGHT.

United Press International

Manuel Artime, 30, a leader in the ill-fated Bay of Pigs invasion, calls for a new effort to overthrow the Castro regime. He spoke at a Miami rally.

THE WASHINGTON POST

Found sCrowd Dock

Man your
Bay
has the vow mun

Mr. pout
of Howan Jr.

was in the Cuban capital. Her Dint on was one of the prisoners the on was one of the prisoners after The street around the Bar agato home was crowded with relatives seeking to join their nile kin in the United States Caso home had come from outlying 1958 the cities in the provinces.

vast One Cuban official told the inva families Committee that those leaving the island would be off permitted to take with them the only the clothes they were ash wearing. Any family leaving milla Cuba forfeits all its posses coas sions. But if one immediate from family member remains the wer would not be the case, he said.
550 Cuban officials continued to reat the 48 visiting American seamen and the 6-man Ameri an Red Cross team as hon red guests.

last day.

At a press conference today, Artime called on all the gov ernments of the Western Hemisphere to join military forces against the Castro re gime. He said such unity could "topple the Cuban Com munist rule within a week."

He emphasized that the ran somed invasion prisoners themselves are determined to return to overthrow Castro.
"We have given our word to